

Program	Criteria	Time Commitment	Cost	Competitiveness	Purpose
Peer-Learning Circles	Complete registration form; commit to full and active participation; one person from each group serves as logistics coordinator	Approx. 1x/month for 4 months; available several times per year (virtual)	None	Not competitive	Networking and peer-learning in groups of 4-6; discuss best practices, challenges, brainstorm ideas, and share resources around new challenges related to internationalization.
Senior Advisor's Program (Advisee and Advisor)	Advisee: AIEA members who are within their first three years of serving as SIO or as SIO at a new institution. Advisor: AIEA members who have served as SIOs for 10+ years at higher education institutions. Seasoned SIOs from 2- and 4-year institutions are especially encouraged to apply.	Advisers and Advisees 3-5 hours/month throughout academic year (Advisers determine mode and frequency of interaction). Attendance at annual conference is highly encouraged.	No cost to participate, however, some in person meetings may be scheduled between mentees/mentors if desired. Possible cost of attending annual conference.	Somewhat competitive due to limited space. Also depends on number of mentors available.	This professional development program connects seasoned leaders in international education with newer SIOs. The SAP provides experienced and newer SIOs with an opportunity to engage in direct dialogue while learning from each other throughout the academic year. Five to seven applicants are assigned as Advisees to a Senior Adviser who provides the best match on institution characteristics (type, level, size, and mission) and Adviser/Advisee past and current job responsibilities.
SIO Academy	SIOs with less than 5 years in current leadership position. Must identify specific challenge or topic of particular interest to them as SIOs as part of the application process	Occurs annually - One week in early May (in person)	$2950 members; $3500 for non-members plus airfare, two meals	Competitive. Limited spaces available.	Intimate, selective, and intensive Academy with deep learning on thematic issues relating to leading internationalization; faculty members for the Academy are all experienced SIOs; build strong network of peers and develop action plans addressing challenges and opportunities in internationalizing their institutions
Presidential Fellows Program	Current AIEA member who serves as SIO at their institution Need and perceived benefit Promise/potential Quality of statement and application materials Preference given to those who have been in their current SIO role for less than 3 years.	Fellow/Mentor relationship lasts one academic year. Approx. one week visit to mentor's campus. Shorter visit by mentor to fellow's campus.	Award includes $2,000 stipend to be Fellow's home institution, to defray travel costs and other related expenses. Fellow's home institution expected but not required to augment or match award.	Highly Competitive	Observe how an experienced Senior International Officer and his/her institution address international education challenges and solves problems Participate with a knowledgeable Mentor in structured week-long campus site visit at the Mentor 's institution. Learn about national and international issues and how they affect individual campuses through the mentor relationship Become a member of a national network of Fellows who serve as resources throughout one's career.

Advanced SIO Leadership Academy (new in 2022!)	Senior International Officers (as defined by AIEA) at higher education institutions with a minimum of 6 years as SIO.	One year: One virtual meeting; 3 day in-person training; two follow-up virtual meetings; and a meeting at the annual AIEA Conference	*coming soon	Competitive. Limited spaces available.	The program will focus on one standard each successive year allowing members to attend to address relevant topics Participants will gain the following: 1. In-depth understanding of and ability to apply AIEA professional standards within the context of their institution 2. Expansion of professional network through membership in a cohort of international education experts 3. Ongoing and immersive professional development experiences that provide opportunities for exploration, investigation, reflection, connection, application.
Board Service	Must be AIEA member Appointment/Election	Three-year terms; must be available for regular meetings (virtual and in person at conference)	N/A except occasional travel to meetings including annual conference	Highly Competitive	Serving on the board of AIEA is an opportunity for senior international officers to set the agenda for the future of international higher education. It is a phenomenal experience for networking, engaging with strategic-level issues, and for serving the field and all who are impacted by international education.
Committee Service	Must be AIEA member Submit application and CV	Staggered three year terms; Annual Conference Committee is one year.  Commit several hours per month for regular meetings plus work on committee projects.  Attendance at annual conference highly encouraged.	N/A except possible cost of annual conference	Somewhat competitive.  Board shall determine the desired number of members.	Member Outreach and Awards Committee is responsible for membership recruitment and membership policies; manages the process for associational awards.  Professional Development and Engagement Committee is responsible for ensuring that the professional development programs and services delivered by AIEA to its members are relevant and of high quality.  Public Policy Committee monitors and responds to policy issues impacting internationalization of higher education in the world; prioritizes policy issues to be addressed by the AIEA, makes recommendations to the Executive Committee and develop ways in which to

Committee service (cont'd)					address key policy issues, educates members on all levels of policy advocacy, and inform policy issues. Publications and Resources Committee is responsible for the editorial policies and priorities of the AIEA, including review and preparation of materials developed for use by the membership. Conference Committee shall be responsible for planning all aspects of the AIEA's annual conference.
Host Thematic Forums	Forum hosted by an AIEA member at an HEI member institution Saliency and focus of the issue/topic for SIOs &amp; leaders advancing internationalization at their institutions Marketing plan Support from host institution(s) Reasonableness of budget and cost sharing Transparency of participant selection process Support of AIEA goals, benefit to AIEA members, and opportunity for AIEA to gain exposure Preference will be given to host institutions in different U.S. regions as well as those outside the United States.	Forum to take place 1-2 days between the months of September and May. Also requires time for planning and completing final report.	AIEA will provide up to $5000 per forum. Host institutional may charge nominal registration fee to offset additional costs. Some cost sharing may be required	Up to four awards given per academic year.	To increase the opportunities for AIEA members and other professionals from related fields to gather in organized venues to discuss and learn more about salient leadership issues in International Higher Education.