Senior International Officers (SIO)

- A SIO is the person designated by a college or university's Chief Executive Officer as its principal international education administrator tasked with campus internationalization.

- Typical SIO titles include: director, vice provost, vice president, vice chancellor, dean, and others.

- The top three primary SIO responsibilities are:
  - linkages/partnerships
  - representing the institution in international dealings
  - strategic planning for internationalization

For more information, the Survey of the SIO Profession: Executive Summary (June 2012) is available on the AIEA website under “surveys.”
