

2016 AIEA Annual Conference: Preliminary Schedule of Sessions

Monday, February 22

1:00 pm - 2:15 pm

New Approaches to Strategic Planning for Internationalization

Pathway Programs: What Should University Leaders Know?

Global Citizenship through Creativity, Activity, and Service

University Partnerships: Developing Human and Institutional Capacity for Food Security

Global Learning + Civic Engagement = Intercultural Competence

Fulbright at 70: Innovative, Impactful, and Inclusive

Legal Issues Confronting SIOs

Course-based Master's as a pathway to reaching new international student audiences and developing capacity building partnerships abroad

New research on internationalization: moving from theory to practice

Global Learning- Success in local delivery advancing the role of higher education

Monday, February 22

3:45 pm - 5:00 pm

Outcomes of the 2015 AIEA SIO Academy

The View from Capitol Hill and the White House: Key Issues in International Education and How to Influence the Discussion

Intercultural Competencies: How Secondary School Curricular Developments are Preparing Interculturally Competent University Students

Stakeholder involvement to impact social and economic activities in communities in practice – small scale impact to tackle global challenges

Assessment in International Experiential Learning Programs: Study Abroad, Service Learning, and Internships

Internationalizing the Campus Through Staff Development Opportunities

Enhancing Curricular Internationalization Through Online International Student Collaborations: Outcomes from the COIL Latin America Academy

Global Human Resource Management: Strategies for International Personnel

How to address labor market relevance and career preparedness for international students in three different countries

The Role and Work of the Senior International Officer at Small Colleges and Universities and Professional Schools

Institutional Prosperity or Social Responsibility? Aligning the goals of internationalization and global citizenship

Monday, February 22

5:15 pm - 6:30 pm

Leveraging Local Public/Private Partnerships for International Engagement

The Provost's Perspective on Internationalization

Profiles that Expand Global Citizenship: Approaches that Develop Intercultural Competencies in Higher Education

Project Atlas: The Value-Add of Data-Sharing

The Role of the SIO in Building Organization Capacity: A Strategic Approach

The SIO As Conflict Resolver: Global Education As a Force for Understanding Across National Boundaries

Internationalization and faculty engagement: Comparative perspectives and grounded approaches to best practices from Canada, Australia and the U.S.A.

Enhancing student mobility through collaborative cross-national research centers

Revisiting measures of internationalization at liberal arts colleges

Tuesday, February 23

8:45 am - 10:00 am

Maximizing SIO Professional Development Through the Fulbright International Education Administrators Seminar

Intercultureality: roadmapping an internationalization journey

Developing Global Leaders?: Short-term Education Abroad, Student Learning and Global Citizenship

Internationalisation of the Academy - Regional Perspectives

Dual Degrees and Funding of Graduate Mobility

Are pathway programs the right fit for your institution?

Cultivating Global Leaders from Leadership Programs

A Research-Based Definition of Global Learning: "What?" "So what?" and "Now what?"

Who Speaks for Universities in Global Strategic Planning: Presidents, SIOs, or Consultants?

National trends and policies for internationalization: A global perspective

Tuesday, February 23

10:45 am - 12:00 pm

AIEA Strategic Issues Roundtable

Innovation in global engagement: What works, what doesn't

Transitioning from International Student to Immigrant: What is the Role of Institutions in supporting this Public Policy Goal?

Service Learning in an International Network of Engaged Universities:

Can We Democratize Global Learning? Expanding Spaces and Representative Participation in Campus Internationalization

Internationalizing Australian Higher Education: the Next Agenda

Commodification and commercialisation of higher education internationalisation: Where are we heading?

Today's Women Leaders in International Education and Global Engagement around the World

Integrated language education - a critical element of the internationalization of higher education and the workforce: lessons learned from the Canada-Brazil context

Institutionalizing Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL): A global approach to internationalizing the curriculum

Tuesday, February 23

1:30 pm - 2:45 pm

AIEA Senior Advisers Roundtable

Internationalization survey in Canada and in the United States: how do Senior International Officers use the data from national surveys to inform their internationalization strategies?

A Strategic Approach to Strengthening and Centralizing Comprehensive and Institutional Commitment to Internationalization

Hot Topics in International Education: Perspectives from Brazil, Europe and North America

Addressing Challenges of the Intercultural Classroom: International Student Perspectives

Study Abroad Programs - Hidden Compliance Dangers You Need to Know About

Principled Approaches to Internationalization

Liberal Arts Institutions and Internationalization: Who and Where are the SIOs?

Rising Above the Summit: Needs, Opportunities and Challenges for Professional Renewal and Growth Among Senior International Officers

Administering campus wide internationalization: Structures and practices

Tuesday, February 23

3:30 pm - 4:45 pm

Building a better SIO: cultivating the practitioner scholar model

Internationalizing the third mission: global social responsibility under review

International Enrollment Management: How to Win Friends and Influence People

Hot Topics in International Education. Perspectives from Australia, Canada, and Globally

Academic Collaboration with Iran: Opening New Doors

“Best Practices in Developing Agreements: Leveraging Strategic Connections and Partnerships”

Summer Schools in Europe: A Pathway to Foster Globalization

Service learning course design to facilitate intercultural learning and support internationalization

The Collaborative Role of Student Affairs and Services in Comprehensive Internationalization

Reciprocity in Internationalization: How can North-South cooperation be sustainable?

Tuesday, February 23

5:00 pm - 6:15 pm

The Rules of Engagement: How can senior administration help to create ethical guidelines for community engaged learning abroad?

What are We After, What Do They Want? Understanding the Search Process and How Best to Compete for SIO Positions

Academic Pathways for Global Citizenship

Canada's Universities, Colleges, and Institutes: Rising to the Challenge of Global Trends through Internationalization, Research, and Community Engagement

From Two Pairs to Three-of-a-Kind: Leveraging Shared Institutional Partnerships to Create Unique Learning Abroad and Collaborative Research Opportunities

De-colonizing International Education: Practices, Challenges and Emerging Models

Digital Revolution: Maximizing Social Media Success in International Student Recruitment, Advising, and Retention

Internationalization through Campus Collaborations and Leveraging Returnee Relations

Different perspectives on managing double and joint degrees: Public (non-profit) vs. Private (for-profit or non-profit) Institutions

The GENI way: bringing global and local together in the North

Wednesday, February 24

9:15 am - 10:30 am

AIEA Town Hall

International Higher Education Organizations: How to Make the Most Out of Global Organizations and Contacts

Global Citizenship: A Key Component of Canadian Post-Secondary Education

Cross Border Higher Education, International Trade, and Economic Competitiveness: unpacking the policy dynamics when education crosses borders

Buy vs. Make: Evaluating the Impact of Public-Private Partnerships for Comprehensive Internationalization

Excellence Initiative Practices in BRICS countries: New opportunities for collaboration

Graduate-Level Internationalization: Student Mobility Models and Trends

Metrics of International Student Success

Is effective Leadership compatible with academic freedom?

The New Role of Women as Global Leaders: How to Capitalize on Partnerships that Integrates Academia into the Internationalization of Higher Education

Wednesday, February 24

11:00 am - 12:15 pm

Global Learning and Assessment

Internationalizing the Curriculum through Online Course Collaboration (COIL)

Strategic Issues that Keep SIOs Awake at Night

Global University Rankings and Internationalization: Challenges and Opportunities

Diversity, Access, and Inclusion: Moving the Dial on Education Abroad

Beyond Recruitment: A Holistic Approach to the International Student Experience

International Education Leadership of Tomorrow: A Canadian perspective

Bridging Research and Global Policy Needs: Better connecting the Academy and the UN System

Exploring the State of Strategic Partnerships in Europe (and Beyond)

Leadership in Transition: The Role of SIOs in a Changing Higher Education Landscape
