Original Post:

Dear Colleagues,

My university places students with NGOs around the world for internships, and we are looking for ways to improve the contract we use to secure these placements. I'm interested in learning from those of you with similar programs. Would you be willing to share your individual student placement agreements? I would also welcome knowing about policies you use related to international internships or guidelines you use for site selection. Please choose whether you wish to reply to me individually at jonesv@seattleu.edu or to the entire listserv; I would be grateful if you could respond by the end of August if possible. I will summarize responses that will then be posted to the AIEA website.

Thank you very much,

Victoria Jones, Ph.D.
