AIEA THEMATIC FORUM: Global Learning in Utah Higher Education

Friday, March 20, 2020
8 a.m.–6:30 p.m.

This one-day forum is open to faculty and administrators from Utah higher education institutions.

Senior international officers, higher education administrators, faculty, and staff from all higher education institutions in Utah are invited for a day of professional development to infuse global learning into curricula across the state. The workshops and sessions will enable Utah higher education institutions to develop a common understanding of global learning and promote the implementation of successful global learning strategies.

Hosted by The University of Utah
Registration fee is $25 - Deadline 2/14/2020
