

AIEA CONFERENCE
Monday, February 19, 2018
5:00 pm - 6:15 pm
Coolidge

Diversity Matters: A Discussion on Navigating Leadership as Women of Color in International Education

Join us in a frank discussion on race, age, and gender in International Education leadership. The leadership journey of women of color in International Education is seldom a straight path, but often filled with surmounting challenges. Let us learn together the different challenges women of color face navigating leadership in this field, and discuss how we can embrace and support our core values of diversity in International Education.

Discussion Questions:

1. Describe your current role and any kind of support you have received to get you to this point in your career.
2. How does race, age, and gender impact your career advancement?
3. What are some of the barriers you have encountered, and how did you overcome them?
4. What strategies can women of color employ to advance their careers?
5. How can Senior International Officers support the leadership advancement of women of color in International Education?